

Jupiter Elementary School 2019-2020 Parent and Family Engagement Plan Summary

Jupiter Elementary School educators, parents, and community members strive to instill a positive foundation for our community in order to successfully develop the whole child.

Annual Meeting

Families are invited to attend the Title I Annual Meeting to learn about the school's Title I programs and requirements. The meeting is designed to inform parents about:

- What is means to be a Title I School
- The school's Title I School-wide Plan
- Parent and Family Engagement (plan), including the School-Parent Compact
- Special Programs such as Migrant Education and McKinney Vento
- Parent's Right to Know
- Other opportunities for parents.

Accessibility for All Families

We encourage all families to attend meetings and events and will provide supports needed to ensure our families are able to participate. We provide translated documents and interpreters, accessible meeting space, and multiple meeting days and times based on family feedback. Please notify the school if other assistance is needed. We want all families to be a part of their child's education!

Communication

Jupiter Elementary School will provide timely and easy to understand updates to parents and families on Title I programs, curriculum, assessments and student progress/proficiency level information using the following resources.

- Interpreters
- Translated Documents
- CLF
- ESOL Coordinator
- Various meeting dates and times

Volunteers

Families are encouraged to volunteer at our school to help students and teachers be successful. To find out more about volunteer opportunities, please call our school's volunteer coordinator. We'd love to have your help.

Staff Trainings for Parent and Family Engagement

- Social and Emotional Learning: Training for staff highlighting the different approaches to support the social and emotional well-being of their students in order to maintain a positive home-school relationship.
- Global Education- Training for staff to help the teachers learn how to make their students critical global thinkers.

Parent and Family Engagement Trainings

- All Pro Dad- Fathers and guardians will learn strategies to become more involved in their child's social and emotional learning. Topics that reinforce character traits such as taking initiative, being positive, thankful, generous, honest, loyal, kind, how to persevere, and how to be a courageous up-stander will be covered.
- Spanish Parent Workshop- Parents will be taught strategies to support their child's education. Topics will include homework, conferences, parenting tips, attendance, social and emotional support, behavioral information.
- Curriculum Night- Parents and families will be given information on the curriculum for their child's grade level. FSA information will also be shared with families. Teachers will share strategies that they can do at home to support the curriculum.

This Parent and Family Engagement Plan was written in partnership with families and other members of our school community. We welcome any suggestions you may have to improve our family engagement practices. There are many ways to do so. If you have comments now, you may write them on the lines below. You are also encouraged to attend our annual Parent Input Meeting in the spring and complete the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Survey sent home each year. Please sign below to let us know you've read the summary. The signed portion should be returned to your child's classroom teacher.
